

In final season, Randolph's Weiland named Coach of the Year

Monday

Posted Nov 14, 2016 at 9:04 PM

Randolph High School head varsity boys soccer coach Ed Weiland was voted by his peers as the South Shore League Sullivan Division Coach of the Year.

The veteran coach led the team to a 7-5-1 league record and 11-6-1 overall. Under his guidance, the team qualified for its sixth straight tournament appearance, earning a 13th seed. The Blue Devils upset fourth-seed Diman Regional, 2-0, Nov. 6

Weiland, a teacher at Randolph High School, will step down at the conclusion of the season after serving as the head coach for more than 25 seasons.

In final season, Randolph's Weiland named Coach of the Year

Monday

Posted Nov 14, 2016 at 9:04 PM

Randolph High School head varsity boys soccer coach Ed Weiland was voted by his peers as the South Shore League Sullivan Division Coach of the Year.

The veteran coach led the team to a 7-5-1 league record and 11-6-1 overall. Under his guidance, the team qualified for its sixth straight tournament appearance, earning a 13th seed. The Blue Devils upset fourth-seed Diman Regional, 2-0, Nov. 6

Weiand, a teacher at Randolph High School, will step down at the conclusion of the season after serving as the head coach for more than 25 seasons.