For Immediate Release

Wednesday, June 1, 2016

I am delighted to announce the appointment of Mr. Terry DeCarbo as the new principal of Randolph High School. Mr. DeCarbo joins us after serving the last three years as the Superintendent of Sto-Rox Public Schools in Pennsylvania, a system of close to 1,400 students in Metro Pittsburg, PA.

Mr. DeCarbo has been a teacher and principal in Phoenix, AZ, where he earned teacher of the year honors. He served as principal in Prince William County, VA, a system of more than 80,000 students for twenty years and received principal of the year honors there as well.

He was an Assistant Superintendent with the District of Columbia Public Schools where he managed 12 schools including alternative education, adult education (high schools), elementary arts magnet program, and public/charter partnership schools.

We are excited to have Mr. DeCarbo joining the excellent team that we have in Randolph Public Schools. Please join me in welcoming Mr. Terry DeCarbo to Randolph Public Schools.
